Notice of Changes in Subsidiaries in Relation to the Transfer of the San Cristobal Mine Which Produces Silver, Zinc and Lead in Bolivia

Sumitomo Corporation announced that it has resolved at its Management Council held on the night of January 21 to transfer the entirety of its interests in three companies, namely its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Comercial Metales Blancos AB (Head Office: Kingdom of Sweden), SC Minerals Bolivia S.R.L. (Head Office: Plurinational State of Bolivia), and Summit Minerals GmbH (Head Office: Swiss Confederation) (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Three Holding Companies"), to San Cristóbal Mining Inc. ("SCM") in Canada.

Sumitomo Corporation initially participated in the San Cristobal Mine, which produces silver, zinc and lead, in 2006 ("San Cristobal Mine"). Through the Three Holding Companies, Sumitomo Corporation acquired a 100% stake in Minera San Cristobal S.A. (Head Office: Plurinational State of Bolivia, "Operating Company"), which owns interests in the San Cristobal Mine. The Operating Company falls under a subsidiary specified in Article 166, Paragraph 5 of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act.

As a result of this transfer, the Operating Company will be removed as a subsidiary of Sumitomo Corporation, and notice is hereby given of the following.

1. Reason for transaction

Sumitomo Corporation initially participated in the San Cristobal Mine in 2006 and has since been focused on the stable operation and management of the San Cristobal Mine by making the Operating Company its wholly-owned subsidiary in 2009. As part of a strategic review in light of the shift in its business portfolio, Sumitomo Corporation has decided to sell the entirety of its interests concerning this to SCM.
